

GROUP 2: ASSETS WORTH MORE THAN $61,000

Workshop 3: Our Choices

Wutor Mahama Baleng

I am 17 years old. I am from Ghana. I am a child ambassador for UNICEF. I represent my country at conferences about child participation. Most of us are familiar with the saying that children are the future but I also think we need to remember that children are the present; we are part of the world we are all living in.

See Wutor's video here

"Seeing the impact of what you do in the community inspires me it shows that what you are doing has an affect on the country as a whole."

Ghana?

---

---

---

---

---

Children have a right to be heard.

Why is it important that young people are listened to?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Can you think of any young person who has truly inspired you?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Do you feel like you are listened to in school/at home/with friends/by the government?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---