HOW THE CONVENTION WORKS

CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child – The Children's Version

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child is an important agreement by countries who have promised to protect children's rights.

The Convention on the Rights of the Child explains who children are, all their rights, and the responsibilities of governments. All the rights are connected, they are all equally important and they cannot be taken away from children.

This text is supported by the Committee on the Rights of the Child.

1

DEFINITION OF A CHILD

Article 1

A child is any person under the age of 18.

2

NO DISCRIMINATION

Article 2

All children have all these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what language they speak, what their religion is, what they think, what they look like, if they are a boy or girl, if they have a disability, if they are rich or poor, and no matter who their parents or families are or what their parents or families believe or do. No child should be treated unfairly for any reason.

3

BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD

Article 3

When adults make decisions, they should think about how their decisions will affect children. All adults should do what is best for children.

Governments should make sure children are protected and looked after by their parents, or by other people when this is needed. Governments should make sure that people and places responsible for looking after children are doing a good job.

MAKING RIGHTS REAL

Article 4

Governments must do all they can to make sure that every child in their countries can enjoy all the rights in this Convention.

5

FAMILY GUIDANCE AS CHILDREN DEVELOP

Article 5

Governments should let families and communities guide their children so that, as they grow up, they learn to use their rights in the best way. The more children grow, the less guidance they will need.

6

LIFE, SURVIVAL AND DEVELOPMENT

Article 6

Every child has the right to be alive. Governments must make sure that children survive and develop in the best possible way.

NAME AND NATIONALITY

Article 7

Children must be registered when they are born and given a name which is officially recognized by the government. Children must have a nationality (belong to a country). Whenever possible, children should know their parents and be looked after by them.

8

IDENTITY

Article 8

Children have the right to their own identity – an official record of who they are which includes their name, nationality and family relations. No one should take this away from them, but if this happens, governments must help children to quickly get their identity back.

9

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

Article 9

Children should not be separated from their parents unless they are not being properly looked after – for example, if a parent hurts or does not take care of a child. Children whose parents don't live together should stay in contact with both parents unless this might harm the child.

CONTACT WITH PARENTS ACROSS COUNTRIES

Article 10

If a child lives in a different country than their parents, governments must let the child and parents travel so that they can stay in contact and be together.

11

PROTECTION FROM KIDNAPPING

Article 11

Governments must stop children being taken out of the country when this is against the law – for example, being kidnapped by someone or held abroad by a parent when the other parent does not agree.

12

RESPECT FOR CHILDREN'S VIEWS

Article 12

Children have the right to give their opinions freely on issues that affect them. Adults should listen and take children seriously.

13

SHARING THOUGHTS FREELY

Article 13

Children have the right to share freely with others what they learn, think and feel, by talking, drawing, writing or in any other way unless it harms other people.

14

THOUGHT AND RELIGION

Article 14

Children can choose their own thoughts, opinions and religion, but this should not stop other people from enjoying their rights. Parents can guide children so that as they grow up, they learn to properly use this right.

15

SETTING UP OR JOINING GROUPS

Article 15

Children can join or set up groups or organisations, and they can meet with others, as long as this does not harm other people.

16

PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

Article 16

Every child has the right to privacy. The law must protect children's privacy, family, home, communications and reputation (or good name) from any attack.

17

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Article 17

Children have the right to get information from the Internet, radio, television, newspapers, books and other sources.

Adults should make sure the information they are getting is not harmful. Governments should encourage the media to share information from lots of different sources, in languages that all children can understand.

RESPONSIBILITY OF PARENTS

Article 18

Parents are the main people responsible for bringing up a child. When the child does not have any parents, another adult will have this responsibility and they are called a “guardian”. Parents and guardians should always consider what is best for that child. Governments should help them. Where a child has both parents, both of them should be responsible for bringing up the child.

PROTECTION FROM VIOLENCE

Article 19

Governments must protect children from violence, abuse and being neglected by anyone who looks after them.

20

CHILDREN WITHOUT FAMILIES

Article 20

Every child who cannot be looked after by their own family has the right to be looked after properly by people who respect the child's religion, culture, language and other aspects of their life.

21

CHILDREN WHO ARE ADOPTED

Article 21

When children are adopted, the most important thing is to do what is best for them. If a child cannot be properly looked after in their own country – for example by living with another family – then they might be adopted in another country.

22

REFUGEE CHILDREN

Article 22

Children who move from their home country to another country as refugees (because it was not safe for them to stay there) should get help and protection and have the same rights as children born in that country.

23

CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

Article 23

Every child with a disability should enjoy the best possible life in society. Governments should remove all obstacles for children with disabilities to become independent and to participate actively in the community.

24

HEALTH, WATER, FOOD, ENVIRONMENT

Article 24

Children have the right to the best health care possible, clean water to drink, healthy food and a clean and safe environment to live in. All adults and children should have information about how to stay safe and healthy.

25

REVIEW OF A CHILD'S PLACEMENT

Article 25

Every child who has been placed somewhere away from home - for their care, protection or health – should have their situation checked regularly to see if everything is going well and if this is still the best place for the child to be.

26

SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC HELP

Article 26

Governments should provide money or other support to help children from poor families.

27

FOOD, CLOTHING, A SAFE HOME

Article 27

Children have the right to food, clothing and a safe place to live so they can develop in the best possible way. The government should help families and children who cannot afford this.

28

ACCESS TO EDUCATION

Article 28

Every child has the right to an education. Primary education should be free. Secondary and higher education should be available to every child.

Children should be encouraged to go to school to the highest level possible. Discipline in schools should respect children's rights and never use violence.

29

AIMS OF EDUCATION

Article 29

Children's education should help them fully develop their personalities, talents and abilities. It should teach them to understand their own rights, and to respect other people's rights, cultures and differences. It should help them to live peacefully and protect the environment.

30

MINORITY CULTURE, LANGUAGE AND RELIGION

Article 30

Children have the right to use their own language, culture and religion - even if these are not shared by most people in the country where they live.

31

REST, PLAY, CULTURE, ARTS

Article 31

Every child has the right to rest, relax, play and to take part in cultural and creative activities.

32

PROTECTION FROM HARMFUL WORK

Article 32

Children have the right to be protected from doing work that is dangerous or bad for their education, health or development. If children work, they have the right to be safe and paid fairly.

33

PROTECTION FROM HARMFUL DRUGS

Article 33

Governments must protect children from taking, making, carrying or selling harmful drugs.

34

PROTECTION FROM SEXUAL ABUSE

Article 34

The government should protect children from sexual exploitation (being taken advantage of) and sexual abuse, including by people forcing children to have sex for money, or making sexual pictures or films of them.

35

PREVENTION OF SALE AND TRAFFICKING

Article 35

Governments must make sure that children are not kidnapped or sold or taken to other countries or places to be exploited (taken advantage of).

36

PROTECTION FROM EXPLOITATION

Article 36

Children have the right to be protected from all other kinds of exploitation (being taken advantage of), even if these are not specifically mentioned in this Convention.

37

CHILDREN IN DETENTION

Article 37

Children who are accused of breaking the law should not be killed, tortured, treated cruelly, put in prison forever, or put in prison with adults. Prison should always be the last choice and only for the shortest possible time. Children in prison should have legal help and be able to stay in contact with their family.

38

PROTECTION IN WAR

Article 38

Children have the right to be protected during war. No child under 15 can join the army or take part in war.

39

RECOVERY AND REINTEGRATION

Article 39

Children have the right to get help if they have been hurt, neglected, treated badly or affected by war, so they can get back their health and dignity.

40

CHILDREN WHO BREAK THE LAW

Article 40

Children accused of breaking the law have the right to legal help and fair treatment. There should be lots of solutions to help these children become good members of their communities. Prison should only be the last choice.

41

BEST LAW FOR CHILDREN APPLIES

Article 41

If the laws of a country protect children's rights better than this Convention, then those laws should be used.

42

EVERYONE MUST KNOW CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

Article 42

Governments should actively tell children and adults about this Convention so that everyone knows about children's rights.

43-54

HOW THE
WORKS

Article 43-54

These articles explain how governments, the United Nations – including the Committee on the Rights of Child and UNICEF - and other organisations work to make sure all children enjoy all their rights.
