

Inspired ★ Gifts

Anfal, 10 years old, Afghanistan

A gift of warmth and hope

When catastrophic floods swept through Afghanistan in 2022, more than two million homes were destroyed. Families were left exposed to the harsh winter that followed.

UNICEF acted quickly - delivering winter kits filled with thermal blankets, jackets, hats, socks, and shoes. For Anfal, the kit meant more than protection from the cold. It brought security, dignity, and comfort at a time of crisis.

This was only possible because of the support of companies like yours.

The Impact So Far

Thanks to the generosity of businesses like yours:

- Millions of Inspired Gifts have reached children in dozens of countries
- Families have received essentials like water purification tablets and School-in-a-Box kits
- Together, we've delivered not just items—but joy, hope, and resilience in places where it's needed most

Why Inspired Gifts Matter

When your company chooses Inspired Gifts, kindness turns into action - and action transforms lives.

They're lifelines, not luxuries

A warm blanket for a child in freezing winter

A sachet of therapeutic food for a malnourished child

Clean water and vaccines that prevent deadly disease

School supplies that open the door to learning and opportunity

The urgency now

Today, children face mounting dangers due to conflict in Gaza, Ukraine, Sudan, and natural disasters in Myanmar, and Afghanistan.

- Families are forced to flee their homes
- Access to safe water, healthcare, and education is lost
- Every day becomes a struggle for survival

In these desperate situations, UNICEF stands as a defender of children's rights—securing humanitarian corridors, mobilizing resources, and protecting children from harm.
